A Guide to MPs from parties that supported the new Emergency Services Tax

The attached guide lists every sitting MP of every party that voted in support of the new Emergency Services Tax. It will help you identify which of your local MPs you need to influence to change their minds. MPs from Labor, the Greens, Cannabis and Animal Justice Parties supported the new Tax. We will continue to refer to it as a Tax until such time as they remove the words “Volunteer Fund” from their tax. This tax should not be collected in volunteers name and is an insult.

The Liberal/National opposition have announced that they will repeal the new Tax and return to settings similar to the old Fire Services Property Levy.

Local engagement with your local Member of Parliament remains a key priority in trying to influence each party’s official position. Direct engagement is a powerful way to influence decisions and ensure your community’s needs are heard. It provides a direct line to decision-makers, allows you to shape policy - and builds important connections. Bringing specific problems or concerns to the MPs attention can lead to policy changes. It also provides an opportunity for the MP to gain a better understanding of your views and needs - and helps them to make informed decisions. Your advocacy may lead to that MP subsequently leading advocacy within their own party for change.

Many members mistakenly believe that because they live in a safe seat, their discussions and advocacy have no power. All members are reminded that in addition to your lower house seat, every member has 5 additional MPs elected to the upper house (Legislative Council) across your Region. These are also your local MPs, you are their constituent, and each rely on your vote for their seat.

You can look up what seat you are from via: Victorian Electoral Commission and who your local members of parliament is from: Members - Parliament of Victoria

Meeting with your local member of parliament, calling their office to request a discussion or writing a letter or email remains a powerful advocacy tool. And while your peak body holds these discussions regularly, local MP’s respond to local constituents who live within their seat. Real people with real stories make a real difference.

In preparation for a discussion or meeting, we encourage you to: prepare for your meeting by doing background research on your MP, often their maiden speech provides an insight into what motivates them. Know your topic and prepare for common counter arguments. Key facts and evidence that you understand and can speak to are valuable as conversation starters. Be clear on what you are seeking from your MP and seek a commitment from them.

Put simply - the new arrangements will divert funds raised by the Emergency Services Tax to seven government entities that were previously funded from consolidated revenue, and as we predicted - there has not been any significant uplift to front line emergency services. The new Tax will collect an extra $590M in Year 1. Be very wary of MPs quoting multi-year spending announcements. Always ask for specifically how much extra funds CFA is receiving from that extra $590M and specifically ask what is budgeted for in 2025/26 – not future years. Ask them to show you in the budget where that new spend appears. (Eg: The $140M “rolling fleet” program equals just $10M in new money for CFA per year.)
